

mandating copy protection is illegal and not only does the FCC has no jurisdiction to do it, but it is illegal and immoral for dinosaur corporations to try and force the FCC's hand. Also, mandating copy protection is just asking for trouble. Tell all the lobbyists that are making life sweet for you to pack up and hit the road; real Americans and real people are sick of their strongarm tactics to rape our wallets.